

National Library Advocacy Day Rally

Save the Date!
June 29, 2010

For one year only, Library Advocacy Day will replace National Library Legislative Day (NLLD). On June 29, 2010, right after the ALA Annual Conference in DC, library advocates from all 50 states and Washington, D.C. will meet at Upper Senate Park on the U.S. Capitol grounds.

The event, which will begin at 11 a.m., will feature guest speakers, photo ops, and a chance to cheer on libraries! After the rally, participants will meet with their elected officials and their staffs.

If you would like to attend, please fill in the registration form below and send it to PALA Headquarters at 220 Cumberland Parkway, Suite 10, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055 by June 1, 2010. We especially need to know who your federal congressperson is so that we can begin to make appointments for visits to legislative offices in DC.

ALA would also like you to register with them so that they can have a name badge ready for you when you arrive. You can register online at <http://www.ala.org/lad> or check the PaLA web site for a link to the registration form as well as a PDF document explaining the registration process.

There will be no face to face briefing day this year, but the ALA Washington office is planning a series of online informative webinars beginning in April. Look for notices about dates and times for these on the ALA Washington office web site, the PaLA web site, and via PAMAILALL email.

For more information about library legislative day email Debbie Malone at Debbie.malone@desales.edu and check the ALA Washington Office web page at <http://www.ala.org/lad>
