National Library Advocacy Day
A Rally for Libraries

Tuesday, June 29, 2010

11am EDT on Capitol Hill

For one year only, Library Advocacy Day will replace National Library Legislative Day (NLLD). On June 29, 2010, library advocates from all 50 states and Washington, D.C. will meet at Upper Senate Park on the U.S. Capitol grounds. The event, which will begin at 11 a.m., will feature guest speakers, photo ops, and a chance to cheer on libraries! After the rally, participants will meet with their elected officials and their staffs.

Debbie Malone (DeSales University) will be coordinating the visits with PA legislators and their staffs, so look for email alerts and notices on the PaLA web site (<http://www.palibraries.org>) beginning in about March, 2010.

The states with the most people will be featured front and center, which means they are the ones that will be in the majority of pictures. Let's make sure Pennsylvanians are present in force!
